STATISTICS OF CLASS I MOTOR CARRIERS, 1949

INTRODUCTORY STATEMENT

The Interstate Commerce Commission under authority of Section 220 of the Interstate Commerce Act requires Class I common and contract motor carriers to file quarterly and annual reports. Beginning with 1948, Class II and Class III carriers also were required to file annual reports.

A Class I carrier in 1949 was one having gross operating revenues (including interstate and intrastate revenues) of $100,000 or over annually, from motor carrier operations. Beginning with reports for the year 1950, the minimum became $200,000. Class II carriers in 1949 were those having gross operating revenues (including interstate and intrastate) of $25,000 or over, but under $100,000 annually, from motor carrier operations, and the Class III carriers were those having such revenues of less than $25,000 annually. This classification of the carriers was modified with respect to reports beginning with 1950, and now a Class II carrier is one having annual gross operating revenues of $50,000 or over, but under $200,000, and a Class III carrier is one having such revenues of less than $50,000.

This summary of statistics compiled from the annual reports filed by Class I motor carriers for the year 1949, is the twelfth of a series which began for the year 1938. With one exception it is similar to the summary for the preceding year 1948, in that data covering the same items are given in the several tables in both publications. In the tables relating to employee particulars for all classes are now shown without distinction between employees paid on an hourly basis and those paid on a daily basis.

The carriers' reports have been examined in the Bureau of Accounts and Cost Finding and the corrected reports form the basis of the present tabulation.

The revenues and other data reported by the carriers relate to their entire operations, including intrastate operations, if any. In some cases, the revenues from the latter operations considerably exceed those derived from transportation in interstate commerce.

According to Bureau estimates, carriers of property in the Class I group in 1949 received about 76 percent of the total revenues of intercity and local carriers of property of Classes I, II and III; Class I carriers of passengers accounted for about 89 percent of the revenues of all classes of motor carriers of passengers. The revenues of carriers of both property and passengers were included in deriving these percentages. Data for these carriers given in tables 57 and 58 should be considered in obtaining complete data on various subjects for either or both property and passenger carriers.

As may be seen from the table of contents, the Class I carriers have been segregated, for the purposes of the present compilation, into three groups: Carriers of property, carriers of passengers, and carriers of both property and passengers. The first two groups have been subdivided to show returns separately for carriers engaged in intercity service and for those engaged in local service.

Local and suburban service, property and passenger, is service performed within a municipality and within the trading and suburban residential area adjacent thereto. Intercity service includes all services operated beyond the limits defined for local and suburban service.

The carriers of property engaged in intercity service have been segregated into common carriers of general freight, common carriers of commodities other than general freight, and contract carriers.

The common carriers of general freight have been further segregated into (1) carriers operating owned equipment exclusively or principally; and (2) those carriers that operated with owned and leased equipment or purchased transportation which reported "Equipment rents--Debit" amounting to 10 percent or more, or "Purchased transportation" expenses amounting to 5 percent or more, of their total "Operation and maintenance expenses." Of the 1,139 common carriers of general freight engaged in intercity service summarized in table 2, 642 were common carriers of general freight operating with owned equipment exclusively or principally and detailed in tables 3 to 14, inclusive; and 497 were common carriers of general freight operating with owned and leased equipment or purchased transportation and detailed in tables 15 to 26, inclusive.

The common carriers of commodities other than general freight, and the contract carriers, were not segregated as were the common carriers of general freight. However, of the 618 common carriers of commodities other than general freight summarized in table 27, 252 were carriers operating with owned equipment exclusively or principally, and 366 were carriers operating with owned and leased equipment or purchased transportation. Of the 255 contract carriers summarized in table 28, 140 were carriers operating with owned equipment exclusively or principally and 115 were carriers operating with owned and leased equipment or purchased transportation.

For the purpose of this publication, carriers of property which derive 25 percent or more of their total operating revenues from local service are classified as local carriers. Data pertaining to the local carriers are summarized in table 33. This table shows there were 612 carriers of property classified as engaged in local service.

Passenger carriers reporting both intercity and local and suburban traffic whose average fare is 20 cents or less are classified herein as local carriers. For this purpose, the revenue and number of passengers applicable to charter, sightseeing or special service are not used in computing the average fare per passenger. Carriers engaged exclusively in charter, sightseeing or special service are classified as local, regardless of the average revenue per passenger. Of the 363 carriers of passengers, 262 were engaged in intercity service and are detailed in tables 35 to 44; and 101 carriers were classified as engaged in local and suburban service and are detailed in tables 45 to 54.

A summary of selected data from the annual reports of carriers of both property and passengers is given in table 57. There were 26 carriers in this group.

The amounts shown as "Provision for income taxes" in tables 1, 2, 5, 7 and other similar tables are understated and "Net income" shown in various tables is overstated in that such taxes are reported by corporations only. Income taxes of sole proprietorships and partnerships are based on factors, such as the amount of personal exemptions and the receipt of other income, that are not pertinent to motor carrier operations.

In addition to the summary tables, abstracts are given of selected items of information for 503 individual carriers of property, 83 carriers of passengers, and 12 carriers of both property and passengers having operating revenues over $1,000,000.

In order that all tables (excepting tables pertaining to employees) relating to a group of carriers would cover the same number of carriers, it has been necessary to omit 77 carriers of property with total operating revenues of $26,387,967. Of the 77 carriers omitted, 46 were intercity carriers with total operating revenues of $13,823,773, and 31 were local carriers with total operating revenues of $12,564,194. These carriers were classified as follows:

Class of service	Number of carriers	Total operating revenues
General freight	18	$5,899,587
Household goods	4	3,648,237
Oilfield haulers	17	5,498,594
Film and associated commodities ...	3	801,869
Wearing apparel	11	3,612,655
Other	24	6,987,025
Total	77	26,387,967

Included in the 24 carriers of other commodities were carriers performing armored truck service, retail stores deliveries, dump trucking, etc.

The carriers of wearing apparel, film and associated commodities, and the oilfield haulers were not required to report the weight of commodities transported; the remaining carriers filed reports which were either incomplete or not usable in some respects.

Also omitted because of incomplete data was 1 carrier of passengers with total operating revenues of $94,195.

The carriers of property engaged in intercity service which reported ton-miles of freight carried are summarized in table 29. There were 1,821 such carriers--1,611 common carriers and 210 contract carriers. Table 29 appears in two parts: A--Common carriers, divided to show the carriers of general freight, the carriers of commodities other than general freight, and totals for all of the common carriers; and B--Contract carriers. Of the 1,611 common carriers, 1,131 were classified as carriers of general freight and 480 were classified as carriers of commodities other than general freight. The revenues, expenses, number of vehicles, vehicle-miles, and tons carried are given for these carriers to permit of useful comparisons.

Attention is called, particularly in the case of carriers of passengers, to the fact that data as to intercity traffic and operations are also found in the tables for carriers classified as engaged in local service and that, to a less extent, data as to local traffic and operations are also found in the tables for intercity carriers.

The Greyhound Corporation, a holding and management company which owns the controlling interest in the stock of 18 reporting carriers, also conducts motor carrier operations under the names of Central Greyhound Lines (Central region), Eastern Greyhound Lines of New England (New England region), Great Lakes Greyhound Lines (Central region), and as Teche Greyhound Lines (Southern region). The data here shown are based on accounting and statistical records maintained by these operating units.

d Credit or other reverse item.

1/ Does not include income taxes applicable to sole proprietorships and partnerships. See introductory statement.

2/ Total expenses (including depreciation, amortization, operating taxes and rents) divided by total operating revenues.

3/ This item does not include drivers of equipment engaged by these carriers to perform "Purchased transportation" service.

4/ Includes duplication on account of tonnage received from connecting Class I Motor Carriers. Basic figures include expenses of operating vehicles in intercity and in local service; these expenses are not separable. Comparisons of average revenue and expenses per intercity vehicle-mile are therefore subject to qualification, particularly where the local revenue is a large part of the total revenue.

1/ In many instances the ton-miles reported were designated as "estimated."

2/ Basic figures include expenses of operating vehicles in intercity and in local service; these expenses are not separable. Comparisons of average revenue and expenses per intercity vehicle-mile are therefore subject to qualification, particularly where the local revenue is a large part of the total revenue.

3/ Average load is based on both trips with load and trips without load and is derived by dividing revenue ton-miles by intercity vehicle-miles.

4/ Average haul is derived by dividing revenue ton-miles by tons of intercity revenue freight carried.

d Deficit or other reverse item.
1/ This item does not include drivers of equipment engaged by these carriers to perform "Purchased transportation" service.
2/ Basic figures include expenses of operating vehicles in intercoity and in local services; these expenses are not separable.
Comparisons of average revenue and expenses per intercoity vehicle-mile are therefore subject to qualification, particularly where the local revenue is a large part of the total revenue.
